

Major at University of Ostrava: English language and Literature

Suitable for following majors at KAZGUU: Translation studies

Period of study: Fall semester – September 15th – December 30th

Spring semester ----- (dates may vary, students have to arrive a week prior to semester for orientation if required)

Deadlines for document selection at Home University: Selection during October and March, deadlines are announced in social media and Platonus

Eligibility: GPA 3,0 and more, IELTS overall band score 5,5 or KEPT Level B2

Availability: for 4 students per semester

Required documents for Home University selection: Application form, 2 signed recommendation letters from teaching staff in free form, Individual study plan (address to your adviser), official transcript in English, confirmation from parents, citizens application. Language proficiency test results, if student does not have he/she takes KEPT at Home University.

After student`s candidacy is approved he/she has to provide Learning agreement, Health certificate 082 and invitation letter from accepting University.

Application to University of Ostrava:

1) After student`s candidacy is approved they receive application form from KAZGUU academic mobility manager via corporate email. It should be filled and sent back. All further instructions have to be received from Ostrava coordinator.

Study opportunities: tuition fee is waived for Host University, all expences have to be covered by student and tuition fee should be paid to Home University.

Approximate expenditures:

Minimum living cost for students 300 Euros per month

*Expences may vary depending on personal preferences.

University website: <https://ff.osu.eu/>

Visa requirements:

https://www.mzv.cz/astana/ru/vizy_i_konzulskie/x2012_10_24_3.html

*Please be aware of financial back up for visa application. It is really hard to get visa to Czech Republic. Every student needs to keep up the dates and deadlines for appointments and be prepared with all the required documents before receives original invitation by post. Short term visa (Shengen) is preferable if your study period lasts less than 90 days in other cases student has to apply for long term visa.